NATIONAL RADIO MONTH PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, our radio stations render a service of great value to the families of South Dakota by making available to them in their homes sources of uniformly fine entertainment and consistently accurate information and,

WHEREAS, our radio stations continually prove themselves dependable communications links with our citizens on the move, serving as sentinel, adviser, and friendly traveling companion and,

WHEREAS, our radio stations take a very active role in our state affairs, always ready to assist in the promotion of civic projects and place their facilities at public disposal in time of crisis and,

WHEREAS, radio broadcasting as a means of mass communication contributes much to the economic, technological, and cultural development of America and occupies a vital position in the maintenance of our nation's welfare and security,

NOW THEREFORE, I Joe Foss, as Governor of the State of South Dakota, by the authority vested in me, do hereby proclaim that the State of South Dakota will observe the month of May as and call upon all citizens to take note of the achievements of our radio stations and to salute the men and women associated with them.
